Some thoughts from Pastor Alana

June 1, 2020

Today I'm thinking about "ministry touches".

We think of the church as being a building where we go on Sundays to worship God in community. But church is so much more than this. In speaking of successful churches, church growth leaders like to speak in terms of church touches. Sometimes, when a church is applying for a grant, there may even be a question about the number of touches a church makes each week. This is done to assess the vitality of a congregation.

When Julie sits in the office (in the good ol' days... yes), and four people drop by, each visit she gets from someone is a touch. It's great to know that she has her regulars, and it's also great to know that during the stay home stay safe time she's been reaching out to those "usuals" by phone. They're the folks you might find sitting in one of the green chairs, chatting amiably with Julie. I see Julie's acceptance of this as a called ministry as such a blessing. Each person she speaks with is a church ministry touch.

When I open my Facebook page in the morning and see I have a post from someone wanting to know they might be able to have their wedding in the church (because they LOVED the information they saw on the web site about the church) THIS too is a ministry touch.

If someone drops in because that person is having a problem paying a bill, Julie will send them to me and we have a conversation. This is a ministry touch.

When fifteen church members or friends go to Harbor to work, those are ministry touches!

When eight church members and friends show up to spread mulch in the gardens, caring for the church gardens, these are more church touches.

When we do a Community Meal and Karen Galvin drops off the food she's bought for a meal, Elsa and Bonnie go in to organize the kitchen, cooks arrive on a third Tuesday and prepare a meal, thirty diners come in to eat our meal, Mary Ann has four conversations in the hall outside the Oak Room where people are eating; each of these is a touch.

When Barb Skovran has the quarterly Sjogrens Support Group on a Saturday, that's 12-15 more touches. Of course, lately Barb has mainly been fielding phone calls from around the state of Michigan. Those are still touches I'm happy to claim.

I can go on and on.

Counting our touches each week is a pretty taxing thing to do, and frankly, the counting many seem to value most, mainly centers on who is sitting in the pews on a Sunday. (By the way, I'm often floored by the low estimates I hear for our Sunday worship that, in fact, from January 1st until we began the quarantine, averaged 61 people per Sunday.) You can see that even this number misses the mark in assessing the touches made each week by First Church UCC St Clair. BEING THE CHURCH is much more than going to church.

Of course, worship on Sunday is VERY important! We're taught to keep the sabbath holy and to love the Lord God with our heart, soul, mind and strength. But it is also VERY important to understand that the church does so much and comes into contact with all sorts of people with all kinds of needs each and every single day, even as we worship remotely in our homes!

First Church UCC St Clair is really and truly good at BEING THE CHURCH. I'll say that again and again because it is so true. Well done, you good and faithful servants!

With You on the Journey,

Pastor Alana

Matthew 25: 33b-40

'Come, you that are blessed by God, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; ³⁵ for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, ³⁶ I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.' ³⁷ Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? ³⁸ And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? ³⁹ And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?' ⁴⁰ And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, ^[g] you did it to me.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION UPDATE

As our Christian education program comes to a close for this academic year, the Christian education committee is busy exploring additional virtual programming for families during the summer. Families will continue to receive updates via Facebook and mail weekly. Although we are unable to gather in person, we still have a fantastic opportunity to learn and grow with each other virtually. Please continue to check the churches Facebook page for updates regarding Christian education summer curriculum.

PASTOR PARISH RELATIONS... Nancy Rice, Carroll Simmons, and Barb Arevalo serve on the Pastor Parish Relations Team to support Pastor Alana in her ministry. The group meets quarterly. While you are encouraged to speak directly to Pastor Alana about concerns you have with her, sometimes it's easier to speak with a member of the PPR Team. Those Team members are available to hear your concerns and will share them with her.

We are now accepting donations for an updated Audio/Visual Equip. Ctr.

The A/V Team has begun researching various means of projecting and sharing our Worship Service during our gatherings and outside the walls of the church, and would be happy to hear your suggestions and/or ideas. If you would be able to donate to this project, please mark your check or envelope "A/V Equipment".

Any questions, please speak with Don Rice or Brian Paret.
